

Make sure the rules are age-appropriate and the young person is aware of what will happen if they are broken.

Set clear boundaries and explain your reasoning.

Let the young person know they are valued and respected.

Be aware of the young person's need for increasing independence.

Ask your young person's opinion, listen and respect their views. Be open if you agree or disagree.

